Itinerary

Itineraries on some departure dates may differ, please select the itinerary that you wish to explore.

DAY 1 - Join trip in Madrid

Madrid is located on the Meseta Central, the inner plateau set at a lofty 600 metres, which helps to lessen the summer heat. It is a fitting start to our exploration of Castile and one of those places that draws people back time and time again, either for its rich culture, great food and architecture ranging from contemporary to Medieval or simply to sit outside on a busy plaza watching the Madrilenos enjoying themselves. This evening there is free time for you to have dinner and Madrid comes to life after dark! Please note that the included free of charge airport transfer will depart from Terminal 1 of Madrid airport. If you arrive into other terminals, details on how to make your way to this terminal will be detailed in your final documentation.

DAY 2 - Discover the old town of Madrid on foot and Toledo by local train

This morning we set off on foot to wander through the old town, getting some off-the-beaten track impressions of the past and modern life in this buzzing city. Amongst other things we'll see the Templo de Debod, which was originally from ancient Egypt. It was given to Spain in 1968 as a thank you for the country's help in saving the temples at Abu Simbel during the Aswan Dam's construction. It now stands in Parque del Oeste and is one of the few ancient Egyptian temples to be found outside its native country. Our walk will finish at Plaza de Sol, where you are free to grab a coffee or continue your exploration. Early afternoon we take taxis to Atocha Station; it's so large it once had its own nightclub and now has a covered tropical botanical garden. A short journey by rail takes us to Toledo, an incredible city rising high above the River Tajo. The only way to experience this remarkable place is on foot and we spend the rest of the day (and evening) exploring its backstreets, which include a heady combination of churches, mosques and synagogues. Most day-trippers return before dusk but we will stay overnight to further absorb its atmosphere.

DAY 3 - Drive to the rugged Sierra de Guadarrama and historic Segovia

We start this morning by driving to the extremely unorthodox Catedral de Justo. Not technically a place of worship, this building located in a rather down at heel industrial estate has been made out of recycled materials over a period of 50 years by the eccentric Justo Gallego - in recognition of being cured of tuberculosis. After this rather surreal visit we head into the rugged Sierra de Guadarrama. Here we stretch our legs for an hour or so exploring the most peculiar rock formations and forest of La Pedriza surrounding the Manzanares River and have the opportunity for a picnic lunch in the great outdoors. Later, we travel north by bus onto the Castile high plains to arrive at Segovia. With the Guadarrama Mountains as backdrop and the giant Roman aqueduct dominating the vista, Segovia has much to offer including a fine collection of Romanesque churches. Constructed over two thousand years ago and remarkably well preserved, the Roman Aqueduct that stretched over 50 kilometres and straddles historical Segovia remains a mystery. This evening your Explore Leader will take you on a two hour walking tour of Segovia finishing up in the Old Town where there will be the chance to have dinner this evening before heading to our hotel for the night.

DAY 4 - Walk Avila's walls; drive to Candelaria in the Gredos National Park

This morning you'll have a couple of hours free to wander around Segovia at your own pace. You might like to visit the UNESCO listed Alcazar Fortress with its pristine turrets towering above the town below or perhaps the nearby Bourbon Palace of La Granja with its beautiful gardens. This afternoon we drive to Avila. UNESCO have declared this Medieval walled town a World Heritage Site and coined it a 'land of songs and saints'. Time has seemingly stood still within the perimeter of its defensive walls which were constructed over eight centuries ago to protect from the threat of Moorish power. On arrival we climb the impressive ramparts and walk along the top of the ancient walls, admiring the surrounding countryside and to gain a different perspective over the walled town. Our last stop of the day is La Sierra de Gredos, Central Spain's largest mountain range. We'll stay overnight in Candelario, a gem of a Medieval village on the northern slopes of the mountain range.

DAY 5 - Walk in La Sierra de Gredos; arrive in the Moorish city of Salamanca

After a stroll through the narrow, cobbled streets of Candelario we explore the lush and green surroundings with the towering peaks of the Sierra reaching more than 2500 metres as the back drop. This afternoon we drive to Salamanca, passing through Guijuelo en route; the centre of Iberian ham production in Spain which is a top gourmet product of international reputation. Along the way we'll visit Arapiles where the Battle of Salamanca took place in 1812 and Wellington's forced defeated Napoleons. We reach Salamanca later this afternoon. In the 12th century Salamanca was establishing itself as one of the leading seats of learning in Europe. Spain was a focal point as the Moorish invaders provided the stepping stone for knowledge to pass from Antiquity to Renaissance. Salamanca is home to some of the finest architecture in Spain and birthplace to the Plateresque style. The sandstone used in most buildings seems to glow golden especially as the sun sets over the hazy plains, playing tricks with the light. At night Salamanca comes to life as it continues to be a lively university town. Spain's grandest Plaza Mayor is a fine place to watch the world go by over a relaxing drink accompanied by some local cuisine.

DAY 6 - Morning orientation walk of Salamanca with a free afternoon

This morning your Explore Leader will take you on foot through this magnificent city which is also very easy to explore later on your own. Sometimes the best way is just to lose yourself down the backstreets. You may choose to visit the cathedral or perhaps the university. For those seeking something more contemporary, you could visit the Museum of Art Nouveau and Art Deco. Inside a modernist stained glass building, the collection here dates back to the end of the 19th century. It is also houses a collection of porcelain dolls - one of the largest collections of its kind.

DAY 7 - Local train to Madrid; chance to visit the Prado Museum

This morning we will take taxis to the railway station and board a train for the two hour journey back to Madrid for our final night. You'll have the afternoon free to enjoy the city's attractions. You may like to join the Madrilenos in their leisurely stroll around the beautiful Retiro Park before enjoying another favourite pastime 'tapeando', passing from bar to bar sampling the local tapas. Art lovers will revel in the famed galleries of El Prado, the Reina Sofia and Von Thyssen's eclectic private collection. You also have the option of visiting the royal residence of Palacio Real or Huertas, known as the literary district has a variety of good restaurants, bars, squares and shops to browse through. This evening they'll be the opportunity for you to go to a Flamenco show or join a tasty tapas tour.

Spain Holidays & Tours

Climate

Overall, spring, early summer and autumn are ideal times for a Spanish trip - though the weather varies enormously from region to region. The high central plains suffer from fierce extremes, stiflingly hot in summer, bitterly cold and swept by freezing winds in winter. The Atlantic coast, in contrast, has a tendency to damp and mist, and a relatively brief, humid summer. The Mediterranean south is warm virtually all year round. Spain's Islands the Canaries and Balaerics experience very mild winters and warm summers making them ideal year round destinations.
