Our standard, mid-range accommodation offers a good level of service, often with other amenities such as a restaurant, bar, garden or swimming pool. Generally rooms will be comfortable with en suite facilities.

WALKING GRADE:

Moderate

For those who are fit and active, these moderate walks are normally on good paths and tracks at low altitude. Days may include some fairly demanding ascents and descents, so previous experience is preferable but not essential.

Itinerary

Itineraries on some departure dates may differ, please select the itinerary that you wish to explore.

DAY 1 - Trip starts at Verona Airport; drive to Torbole by Lake Garda, optional walk

After joining the trip at Verona airport, we drive to the small resort of Torbole at the northern end of Lake Garda, our base for the first three nights of the holiday. The scenery at this, the lake's narrowest end, is some of its most dramatic, with high cliffs plunging almost vertically into the cool blue waters. This afternoon there is the option of a circular walk on some of the lower slopes above the lake on the Bussate to Tempesta trail. Blessed with a mild climate, they are cloaked in groves of olive trees as well as ilex and oak. Today's optional eight kilometre walk is expected to take approximately two-and-a-half hours with a total ascent and descent of 420 metres.

DAY 2 - Monte Baldo cable car and hike; explore Malcesine

Today we catch a local bus along the lake shore to Malcesine, an old town with picturesque cobbled lanes and a castle, which nestles between the lake and our walking destination today, the impressive Monte Baldo ridge which overlooks Lake Garda at an average altitude of around 1800m. Saving our legs, we take the superfast cable car from the town and enjoy a walk on the ridge with spectacular views down to the lake and across to the Alps in the distance beyond. We can have lunch at one of the mountain refuges before descending to the mid-way cable car station and taking the cable car back to Malcesine. There's time to explore Malcesine and people watch from one of its many charming cafes and bars before travelling back to Torbole. You can opt to take one of the ferries that ply the lake for a different vantage point. Today's 14 kilometre walk is expected to take approximately five hours with a total ascent of 100 metres and descent of 1000 metres. The descent is on a good and well-maintained track.

DAY 3 - Trek towards Cima Rocca; option to walk on Old Ponale Path

For our final walk at Lake Garda we travel by bus to the small village of Biacesa (418m) in the Ledro Valley. We hike up to the Arcioni hut (858m) where the views are second to none. For the adventurous, there is the option to continue to ascend the small peak of Cima Rocca (1,090m), the ascent passing through some old tunnels from WWI and climbing a couple of iron ladders inside them. From the peak we descend on a different route which then re-joins the same trail back to Biacesa. At Biacesa for those who would like to walk back to Riva del Garda, it's around another five kilometres on the Old Ponale Path, in the past the only connection between Lake Garda and the Ledro Valley. The path was partly carved out during the first world war and we pass tunnels and fortifications along the route. From either point the walk is ended, local buses can be caught back to Torbole. Today's seven kilometre walk is expected to take approximately four-and-a-half hours with a total ascent and descent of 680 metres (to Cima Rocca). The additional five kilometre optional hike along the Ponale Path is expected to take approximately two-and-a-half hours and is mainly flat

DAY 4 - Drive to Bassano Del Grappa via Verona; optional Soave wine tasting

Leaving Lake Garda behind us, we drive to the wonderful UNESCO-listed historic city of Verona for some free time to explore and have lunch. Verona reputedly has more Roman ruins than any Italian city other than Rome and also many medieval and renaissance buildings. Three of Shakespeare's plays are set in Verona: Romeo and Juliet, The Taming of the Shrew and The Two Gentlemen of Verona. We then continue to a nearby vineyard for the chance to enjoy a tasting of one of the Veneto's D.O.P. wines, the dry white Soave. Our destination for the next three nights is the attractive town of Bassano del Grappa. Situated on the Brenta River, at the point where the flat Veneto plains reach the foothills of the Alps, it takes its name from the nearby Monte Grappa. The town's architecture reflects Bassano's location: typical Veneto-style arcaded streets and piazzas are interspersed with alpine wooden balconies, and some of the hostelrys have a decidedly Austrian flavour. Amongst the produce for which Bassano is known is one of the rarest delicacies in Italy, the white asparagus that appears between mid-March and mid-June and which we are sure to sample if our visit is in season. The other is of course the strong grappa liqueur produced in the area.

DAY 5 - Hike from Villa Barbaro to Asolo

Today we head to the 16th century Villa Barbaro, a UNESCO world heritage site that lies in the middle of a large wine estate. There's the option to visit the villa before we start our walk in the area, passing through small villages and vineyards and ending in the lovely town of Asolo. This well-preserved medieval town clings to the side of a hill with tremendous views of the surrounding hills and plain. In the afternoon we return to Bassano del Grappa. Today's 14 kilometre walk is expected to take approximately five-and-a-half hours with a total ascent of 380 metres.

DAY 6 - Free day to visit Venice by train

Today has been left free; with trains to Venice from Bassano running regularly and taking around an hour, you can enjoy a full day in this magnificent city if you wish. €20.00 will buy you an unlimited boat ticket in the city, allowing you to travel along the Grand Canal or even travel to Murano and Burano to see a quieter side of the city and some of the local glass production.

DAY 7 - Walk in Prosecco Hills; prosecco tasting

Today we head through a rolling landscape of vineyard-clad hills in the heart of Prosecco Country, towards Valdobbiene. Our walk passes through the vineyards with views of the lower valley, and ends at a local winery where we plan to enjoy sampling various types of prosecco. There is even a prosecco without bubbles! Today's 14 kilometre walk is expected to take approximately five-and-a-half hours with a total ascent of 305 metres.
