Tailormade Imperial Cities of Morocco Holidays

Morocco's city highlights

Visiting Morocco's great historic cities of Fes and Marrakech, you'll have the opportunity to get lost in the maze of backstreets and alleyways, explore the souks and mosques, and discover snake charmers, acrobats and musicians in the lively Djemma-el-Fna

Enriching tailormade journeys – for you

This bespoke journey features some of our favourite spots in Morocco. You can choose to take our destination experts' recommendations and travel just as you see the itinerary here, or contact us to add your own special touches; you may wish to take a cookery class in Marrakech, visit the High Atlas mountains and do some trekking, or travel a little further and have a few nights under the stars in the desert. We're here to design your perfect holiday.

Trip highlights

ACCOMMODATION GRADE:

Standard

Our standard, mid-range accommodation offers a good level of service, often with other amenities such as a restaurant, bar, garden or swimming pool. Generally rooms will be comfortable with en suite facilities.

TRIP PACE:

Moderate

Moderate pace tours are ideal if you want a holiday which combines exciting activities and experiences with plenty of time to relax and unwind. Typically you'll be active and busy for part of the day but then also have time to rest and recharge your batteries.

Itinerary

Itineraries on some departure dates may differ, please select the itinerary that you wish to explore.

DAY 1 - Fly to Casablanca

Depart from the UK. You'll be met on arrival in Casablanca and transferred to your hotel.

Accommodation: Moroccan House Hotel (or similar)

Standard Hotel

None

DAY 2 - Drive via Rabat to Fes

Rabat was established as the capital of the French protectorate in 1912 and since independence has served as the capital of a modern Morocco. Rabat's history stretches back as far as 8BC, when settlers arrived in what is now the Chellah area, a district that went on to become a prosperous Roman town, before being transformed by the Merinids into a cemetery. Your visit will take in something of the city's historic heart, exploring the area around the Hassan Tower and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, before wandering through the engaging Kasbah des Oudaias, originally a fortified town that is now infused with a distinctly Andalusian flavour. In the afternoon you'll transfer to Fes.

Accommodation: Riad Ghita (or similar)

Standard Hotel

Breakfast

DAY 3 - Morning city tour

This morning you will have a guided tour of 'the artisan capital of Morocco'. Taking in the mosques and souks of the Fes el Bali (Old Fes) on foot affords the ideal opportunity to explore the souks that line the backstreets of the town, wandering past aromatic spice stalls and taking in the opulent majesty of the 14th century Attarin Medersa, whose intricate decoration and elegant design makes it one of the city's most captivating medieval colleges. One of the city's most impressive monuments is the spectacular Medersa Bou Inania, the 14th century Merenid structure built by the Sultan Abou Inan, whose exquisite carvings and tile work is considered amongst the most exceptional examples of its kind anywhere in Morocco. The afternoon is then free to enjoy at your leisure what is in essence one of the most engaging, and certainly one of the most undiminished, medieval cities anywhere in the Arab world.

Accommodation: Riad Ghita (or similar)

 Standard Hotel

DAY 4 - Meknes, Volubilis and Moulay Idriss

Enjoy a guided tour of the major highlights of Meknes, including the old granaries of the Heri es-Souni and the Mausoleum of Moulay Ismail himself. In spite of Ismail's seemingly unquenchable blood lust and far from benevolent treatment of his subjects, the sultan still seems to be held in high regard and his tomb is something of a place of reverence even today amongst a people who still see his rule as Morocco's Golden Age. You'll discover much of the city's beautiful architecture and the busy medina, where you can try your bartering skills in the markets. From here we head next for the nearby ancient site of Volubilis - the capital of the Roman province of Mauritania Tingitana. The detailed mosaics here are still intact and the site gives a good idea of the layout of provincial settlements. En route back to Fes you will stop for a visit at the Muslim pilgrimage town of Moulay Idriss, named after the Prophet Mohammed's grandson.

Accommodation: Riad Ghita (or similar)

 Standard Hotel

DAY 5 - Drive to Marrakech

Departing Fes for Marrakech, the scenic journey stops in the Berber market town of Azrou, set in deep in the Middle Atlas this slow-paced town has stunning views of the surrounding meadows and cedar forests. You'll also pass Beni Mellal, lying at the foot of Mount Tassemit it is an important agricultural town. Your journey continues, arriving in Marrakech in the late afternoon.

Accommodation: Riad Celia (or similar)

DAY 6 - Morning city tour

Morocco's famous 'Red City', Marrakech is the spiritual heart of the country, a cultural melting pot of the mountain Berbers and the desert peoples of the south. Blessed with some of the most stunning architecture in Morocco, its mix of tradition, colour and history makes for a fascinating guided walk through its medina this morning. You'll wander through its bustling souks and pay a visit to the remarkable setting of the Bahia Palace, a fusion of Moroccan and Islamic styles that was intended to be the greatest palace of its time, you'll also see the Saadian Tombs and Koutoubia Mosque. This afternoon has been left free for you to explore at your leisure.

Accommodation: Riad Celia (or similar)

 Standard Hotel

 Breakfast

DAY 7 - Free day

Today has been left free to continue exploring this amazing city. You can wander past vendors selling doughnuts and fried grasshoppers, meander through native markets where Muslim women, their hands and feet dyed with henna, call out to sell their wares, and enjoy the sounds and the smells of the exotic. Perhaps you will prefer to take time to enjoy more of the remarkable Medina, haggling for a bargain or two, or simply sitting at one of the local cafés and watching the street tableaux unfold before you. If you are after something more active you could take a trip to Imlil or Ouirgane in High Atlas in the High Atlas Mountains for a short hike in the stunning surroundings.

Climate

The climate is both Mediterranean and Atlantic. The dry, hot season is from May to October when summer temperatures can reach 38°C and above (if sight seeing is included we will do our best to avoid the heat of the day during this period). Temperatures may drop significantly at times during the night as the day's heat rapidly diminishes. From December to January snow can be expected on mountain passes and it can be wet. In winter, day temperatures will probably be around 18-25°C, dropping to perhaps 0-5°C.

Accommodation notes

Booking a Single Room

All of our group tours are planned and operated on a twin-share basis, meaning that the standard cost is based either on individual travellers sharing accommodation with another group member of the same sex, or people who book together sharing accommodation. Please refer to the tour notes where the single room option availability is detailed on a night by night basis for this tour, and the price for the available nights is detailed on the dates & prices tab by departure date. For Self-Guided trips the Single Room supplement offers the option of a single room each and is charged per person. The Single Room supplement also applies to the third person in a party of three that will be accommodated in a single room.

Standard

Light on your pocket but long on authentic experiences, these tours are based in simple, sometimes local-style accommodation. If your idea of adventure travel is to experience real, everyday life then you will enjoy our Simple style of tour. You will have the chance to stay at simple, family-run hotels and guesthouses where the lack of luxury is more than compensated for by the warm welcome and genuine insight into local life.

Moroccan House Hotel

This charming hotel is ideally located close to Boulevard Mohamed V and only a short drive away from the mosque. The hotel is decorated throughout with traditional Moroccan designs and furnishings, Rooms are spacious and comfortable and the hotel also has a small restaurant.

Riad Ghita

Riad Ghita is located within the walls of the medina, and it's owners pride themselves on offering a traditional and friendly stay. The whole riad is decorated throughout with Moroccan furnishings and décor, and whether you wish to sit on the rooftop terrace admiring the view, or sit in the central courtyard sipping mint tea, it really is your home from home. Traditional Moroccan dishes can be cooked on request.

Riad Celia

Located in the centre of the historic area of Marrakesh, the Riad Celia is the perfect place from which to explore the medina. The restored house is a small property offering traditionally decorated rooms. Set over three levels around a central courtyard the rooms are brightly coloured and ornate, with air-conditioning and en suite. There is a terrace where guests can chill-out, or relax in the summer lounge by the fountain or the winter lounge with TV and games.

Premium

On Standard level tailor-made tours you will stay at comfortable mid-range hotels, chosen for their location, ambiance or local character. Your rooms will be clean and well-appointed, with en suite bathrooms and air-conditioning or heating as necessary.

Standard level hotels normally have restaurants, bars and often other amenities such as a swimming pool and gardens, offering a good level of comfort at a reasonable price.

Club Val D'Anfa

Ideally located on the corniche, the Club Val D'Anfa is a great place to relax and unwind, whether that be by the hotel swimming pool or walking along the sea front. For those who enjoy being a bit more active, the city centre is only a short drive away. The hotel is tastefully decorated throughout, featuring a flavour of traditional Moroccan designs. Rooms are spacious and comfortable, and the hotel also offers a bar and restaurant.

Riad Salam

Riad Salam is located next to Batha Square offering easy access to the medina and the famous Bab Boujloud Gate. The riad was built at the beginning of the 20th century and has been beautifully designed and decorated. Guest rooms are all individually decorated with Moroccan designs and overlook the quiet interior patio. When not exploring the medina guests can relax in the traditional hammam or enjoy a traditional dish from the restaurant.

Riad Berta

This old residential house is a blend of traditional materials combined with modern comfort. Located in the prestigious Kasbah Quarter next to the Royal Place, Riad Berta is about a 15 minute walk from the famous Jamaa El Fna Square on typical animated streets through the Saadien Tombs and the Bab Agnaou Gate. The Riad has an open courtyard planted with palm trees and surrounded by decorated arches as well as a large terrace where you can enjoy a glass of mint tea with great views of the High Atlas peaks and the green tiled roofs of the Royal Palace. The rooms are all comfortable offering different styles and Moroccan colours.
