DAY 3 - Fly to Cusco, city tour

This morning depart Lima and fly to Cusco. The old capital of the Inca Empire survives only in its ruins, imbued with an atmosphere of mystery and grandeur. The Spanish colonial city, with its attractive pink tiled roofs, arcaded plazas and steep winding alleyways, stands upon tremendous Inca foundation stones. This afternoon take a walking tour of this lovely city to see important Inca and Colonial monuments, such as Plaza de Armas, the main square and the Koricanha, once an Incan Palace dedicated to the sun god, Inti. You then visit one of the outlying Inca sites - Cusco's temple-citadel, Saqsaywaman which broods high above the town, its huge, zigzagging stone walls broken into 66 sharply projecting angles to catch attackers in a withering crossfire. The journey continues to the archaeological sites at Qenko, Puca-Pucara and Tambomachay, and ends with a visit to an Andean art workshop.

DAY 4 - The Inca Trail

You will be driven to 82km, stopping at the Inca site of Ollantaytambo. The trail was first explored by Hiram Bingham in 1911 and opened for walkers in 1970. The famous ruins of Machu Picchu are not the only historical remains within the area: many other interesting sites are hidden in places which can only be reached on foot and have scarcely been explored. Your trek starts by crossing the Urubamba river, then follow its rapids down the Sacred Valley of the Incas to Llaqtapata (2700m). You will visit the ruins here and enjoy lunch before heading up the valley, gaining altitude until you reach Huayllabamba (2954m), a quiet village of Inca origins and the last settlement on the route, where you camp for the night. (Approx 5-6 hrs walking)

DAY 6 - The Inca Trail

This morning you cross the Runkuraqay Pass (3950m). Here the selva (jungle) becomes visible on the slopes of the mountains. Sayaqmarca ruins are on a rocky promontory. They command an imposing view and have only one means of access, a narrow granite stairway. Your trail goes through cloud forest with vines, exotic flowers (among them orchids) and luxuriant trees, then on through an Inca tunnel and along a ridge above the Urubamba River to the lovely Phuyupatamarca ruins (3579m). The views of the Urubamba and the snowcapped peaks of Veronica (5750m) and Salkantay make these ruins one of the most beautiful places on the trail. Finally you descend to Winay-Wayna ruins (2591m), a small Inca city which, like Machu Picchu, was abandoned for unknown reasons, your camp for the night. (Approx 8hrs walking)
