Our standard, mid-range accommodation offers a good level of service, often with other amenities such as a restaurant, bar, garden or swimming pool. Generally rooms will be comfortable with en suite facilities.

WALKING GRADE:

Moderate

For those who are fit and active, these moderate walks are normally on good paths and tracks at low altitude. Days may include some fairly demanding ascents and descents, so previous experience is preferable but not essential.

Maximum group size ranges from between 6 to 20 people, depending on the type of trip, the transport and accommodation used and activities included. We rarely have groups that are smaller than five or six people and the average is 12 people plus an Explore leader.

Itineraries on some departure dates may differ, please select the itinerary that you wish to explore.

DAY 2 - Day to explore Marrakech. Optional walking tour of the souks.

Marrakech is a feast for the senses. Like many North African towns, Marrakech is divided into two distinct parts, the Gueliz (or modern French-built city) and the Medina (the Old City). It has always been a meeting place for the mountain Berbers and the desert peoples of the south and the colourful souks perfectly illustrate this fact. No visit to the city is complete without a visit to the celebrated Djemmael- Fna Square. A spectacle not to be missed with many street performers to watch and enjoy. Also of interest is the Koutoubia mosque, Saadian Tombs and the souks and medina. Perhaps you might like to visit the Dar Si Said Palace (now the Museum of Moroccan Art) and the Minara Gardens or just lose yourself in the maze of narrow streets filled with the sounds, colours and smells of the exotic. Your tour leader will be able to arrange a local guide to give a optional walking tour of the souks. This evening there is the option to visit a hammam and to re-emerge renewed and refreshed and ready to continue our journey.

DAY 3 - Drive to Imlil. Explore the local villages on foot

This morning we leave the bright lights of Marrakech behind and head into the Atlas Mountains to the small village of Imlil, our base for the next four days. We will be staying in traditional Berber riad with communal salon and open fire, or a breezy rooftop terrace in warmer months. After checking in there should be some time to walk around the local villages to get a feel for the area and meet some of the local people. Today's two kilometre walk is expected to take around one hour with a total ascent of 110 metres and a descent of 110 metres.

Accommodation: Dar Assarou (or similar)

Standard Riad

Single room available

Meals Provided: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

DAY 4 - Walk to the holy shrine of Sidi Chamarouch, following the Mizane Valley.

The beauty of this setting is that stunning scenery is available in abundance, regardless as to how much walking you wish to do. The High Atlas has retained a remoteness and beauty that has been lost elsewhere and the surrounding villages continue life as they have done for centuries. On our first morning here we take a walk to the holy shrine of Sidi Chamarouch, following the Mizane Valley. Straddling a gorge, the village and the shrine sit besides a small waterfall. The village is a jumbled cluster of houses that seem to melt together in a chaotic mass. The shrine attracts tourists and pilgrims alike, although only the Muslims are allowed to cross the stone bridge to visit the marabout shrine itself. We return to the riad along the same track in time for lunch. Today's nine kilometre walk is expected to take around five hours with a total ascent of 610 metres and a descent of 610 metres.

Standard Riad

Single room available

Meals Provided: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

DAY 5 - Walk to Tizi Mzik

Today's walk takes us up to Tizi Mzik pass (2,489m). For outsiders, one of the most surprising aspects of walking in these mountains is the friendliness and openness of the villagers as they go about their everyday tasks. Walking through these communities is a refreshing insight into a lost culture set amidst the stunning beauty of the High Atlas Mountains. One evening at the Riad you will have the opportunity to take part in a cookery class. Watch the chef and learn how to prepare local specialities before participating in preparation of the group meal. This is included in the tour and the tour leader will arrange this with the group during your stay. Today's seven kilometre walk is expected to take around four and a half hours with a total ascent of 749 metres and a descent of 749 metres.

Accommodation: Dar Assarou (or similar)

Standard Riad

Single room available

DAY 6 - Walk to Ikkis via Tizi-n-Tamaterte

This morning we walk to the pass of Tizi-n-Tamaterte (2,279m). This is easy walking along an old mine road that twists through small villages and the views from the top are stunning. The Imane and Ait Mizane Valleys are stretched out below us and Mount Oukaimeden towers above. Descending through meadows of lupins and conifers, we head for the hamlet of Ikkis where we stop for lunch before we return to Imlil via a different route. This time we walk to Aguersioual and Taddart, following the course of the river and passing terraces and walnut groves on our way back to the village. Anyone who would prefer less walking today can return to Imlil from Tizi-n-Tamaterte via a dirt road. Today's 12 kilometre walk is expected to take around eight hours with a total ascent of 739 metres and a descent of 779 metres.

Accommodation: Dar Assarou (or similar)

DAY 7 - Drive to Marrakech; free afternoon

This morning we have to say goodbye to our mountain home and head back to the Red City of Marrakech. On arrival in the city we check-in to our hotel and the rest of the day is free for more personal exploration of this fascinating city.

Accommodation: Riad Celia (or similar)

DAY 8 - Tour ends Marrakech

Climate

The climate is both Mediterranean and Atlantic. The dry, hot season is from May to October when summer temperatures can reach 38°C and above (if sight seeing is included we will do our best to avoid the heat of the day during this period). Temperatures may drop significantly at times during the night as the day's heat rapidly diminishes. From December to January snow can be expected on mountain passes and it can be wet. In winter, day temperatures will probably be around 18-25°C, dropping to perhaps 0-5°C.

Budgeting and packing

Optional activities

Marrakech - Walking tour £6, Hammam £20.

Clothing

Morocco is a Muslim country and it is important to dress with respect for local customs. People may be offended by shorts or revealing dresses, which can attract unwelcome attention. We advise that in general both men and women should cover shoulders, upper arms and knees. Transparent, plunging necklines and tightfitting clothes should be avoided. Women should also cover their heads when entering a sanctuary, though in general, mosques are forbidden to non-Muslims. For those clients on a cycling holiday please bear this information in mind for times that you are not on the bikes. While cycling it is no problem for both men and women to wear your regular cycling gear, tight fitting or not. Summer: Clothing should be lightweight. However, bring some warm clothing for nights in the mountains. Temperatures can drop sharply at night particularly in September/October.

Footwear

Please bring sandals or comfortable shoes for relaxing in.

Luggage

20kg

Luggage: On tour

One main piece of baggage and a daypack. Remember you are expected to carry your own luggage so don't overload yourself. It is preferable to bring your luggage in soft holdalls rather than a large suitcase - as it is easier to pack them on the coaches (small coaches have very little luggage space). It is also best to pack light as porters can't always be guaranteed. Unrequired and additional luggage can be left in Marrakech at the hotel or with our agent during the trek.

Equipment

We recommend a sunhat, sunscreen, a torch, insect repellent and a water bottle. Binoculars are very useful for bird and animal spotting. Trekking poles can be useful.

Tipping

Explore leader

At your discretion you might also consider tipping your Tour Leader in appreciation of the efficiency and service you receive.

Local crew

Although entirely voluntary, tipping is a recognised part of life in this region of the world. Some local staff will look to members of the group for personal recognition of particular services provided. Accordingly, you should allow approx. £10 for tipping of crew and local guides used. In order to make things easier for you, the Tour Leaders may organise a group's tips kitty and if this is the case, they will account for it throughout the tour.

Booking a Single Room

All of our group tours are planned and operated on a twin-share basis, meaning that the standard cost is based either on individual travellers sharing accommodation with another group member of the same sex, or people who book together sharing accommodation. Please refer to the tour notes where the single room option availability is detailed on a night by night basis for this tour, and the price for the available nights is detailed on the dates & prices tab by departure date. For Self-Guided trips the Single Room supplement offers the option of a single room each and is charged per person. The Single Room supplement also applies to the third person in a party of three that will be accommodated in a single room.

Morocco is a developing country and as such, the accommodation standards are not equivalent to those in Europe and can be more basic. We generally choose our properties because of their location, cleanliness, traditional style or for their welcoming atmosphere, as we endeavour to provide an authentic Moroccan experience. However, some of the properties might have some outdated or simple furniture and the level of service may vary depending on the location. You may find that availability of hot water is variable or limited in certain locations. Breakfasts are generally continental style. A swimming pool is often available, especially in the cities.
