Itinerary

Itineraries on some departure dates may differ, please select the itinerary that you wish to explore.

DAY 1 - Join trip in Bogota

Arrive in Bogota, the capital of Colombia set at an altitude of over 2,600m. The city sprawls out from the high ranges of the Cordillera Mountains, blanketing the Andean peaks with an eclectic mix of historic buildings and modern, urban architecture. Its name comes from the Muisca indigenous people who inhabited the region before the arrival of the Spaniards in 1538, and the remnants of not only the Muisca empire but of Colombia's many other indigenous cultures can be found in the city's impressive Gold Museum.

For those arriving on time our Leader plans to meet you in the hotel reception at 6pm for the welcome meeting and for those that wish, there is the chance to go out for dinner. There are no activities planned today, so you are free to arrive in Bogota at any time. If you would like to receive a complimentary airport transfer today, you'll need to arrive into Bogota's El Dorado International Airport (airport code: BOG), approximately a 45 minute drive from our hotel. Should you miss the meeting, your leader will inform you of any essential information as soon as you catch up.

If your flight arrives earlier in the day, La Candelaria is a good place to orientate yourself in the city, where a wealth of museums, bars and restaurants are dotted in between colonial convents and churches.

DAY 2 - Bogota graffiti tour; visit the Gold Museum

The prolific urban art scene found in Bogota has exploded in recent years, and this morning we set off to explore some of the gems of artwork available on the streets. This graffiti tour was originally set up in 2011 to help expose Colombian artists to a wider international audience, and the passionate local street artist accompanying us really brings this to life.

In the afternoon we will be walking through the colourful colonial streets of La Candelaria and the city's lively central area. We'll cross the vast Plaza de Bolivar, encountering some excellent examples of colonial architecture, such as the Catedral Primada de Colombia. The visit continues with the Museo Botero, a colonial house filled with works of art by the Colombian artist and sculptor Fernando Botero, famous for his abstract portrayal of people with large, exaggerated proportions. Finally, we will visit the Gold Museum, which is regarded as housing the finest collection of gold from Pre-Hispanic times.

To round off a busy day of exploration, we take a birds eye view of the city as we ascend the pilgrimage site of Mount Monserrate by cable car.

DAY 3 - Day at leisure in Bogota

Today we are totally free in Bogota to relax and take in the sights of this eclectic city. If your free day coincides with a Sunday (which is the case on the majority of our trips), take a trip to the street market at Usaquen, an upscale neighbourhood in the north of the city with a weekly market selling masses of high quality products and handicrafts. Alternatively, the daily farmers market at Paloquemao is a lavish display of tropical fruits, vegetables, flowers, fish, meat and other fresh produce. For trying local specialities like arepa (corn cakes) and salpicon (Colombian fruit cocktail) this market is quite unbeatable.

DAY 4 - Discover Zipaquira's cavernous Salt Cathedral; fly to the Coffee Country

We'll drive north out of the city this morning towards the small town of Zipaquira, a town that may normally go unnoticed if not for its extraordinary Salt Cathedral. This immense structure, carved out of solid salt, can accommodate over 8000 people and was part of the salt mines - a house of worship created as an easy way for miners to practice their religion while not disrupting their work. Curving and twisting tunnels descend into the Roman Catholic Church, passing 14 small chapels representing the Stations of the Cross, illustrating the events of Jesus' last journey. The immense cross in the central nave, lit from head to toe, has to be seen to be believed.

After our visit we'll go directly to the airport, where we catch our flight to Armenia, the capital of the Quindío department and an important coffee growing centre, our location for the next three nights.

DAY 5 - Full day exploring the wax palms of the Cocora Valley; traditional lunch in colonial Salento

After breakfast we take a drive to Salento, where we climb aboard an immaculately restored vintage

Willys jeep and drive into the Cocora Valley. We're in the foothills of the Andes here, hiking amongst a multitude of towering wax palms that pepper the mountainsides like pins in a cushion. These countryside walks are on undulating terrain with well-trodden paths and the pace gives us plenty of time to enjoy the mountain views. On our return to Salento, we'll have a typical lunch in this charming town, its colourful architecture so characteristic of this coffee growing region. Trout is particular to the area, usually served with plantain and rice, but you may also find yucca and arepas too.

Our final stop of the day is at the Acaime Nature Reserve, just 5km from Cocora. This paradise for hummingbird watching takes us through leafy rainforest and wooded trails, a contrast to the open mountain scenery of this morning. The walks are leisurely, concentrating more on exploring the cloud forest landscape than strenuous hiking.

DAY 6 - Explore a coffee plantation and taste the local brew

This is one of the most attractive parts of the country, and our hotel happens to be situated in the midst of its own coffee farm. Today we'll spend the morning visiting the farm - we will learn about the whole process, from the planting of the beans all the way through the picking and roasting process, finishing off with trying the fresh coffee. The physical work undertaken by the pickers in hauling their loads across the mountainside is quite amazing.

If, for any reason, the hotel for this evening changes, we will visit one of the other many coffee farms in this area.

DAY 7 - Fly to Cartagena on the Caribbean coast; bicycle tour of the walled city and seafront

This morning we'll fly to Cartagena, hailed as one of the most fascinating colonial cities in Latin America. Located on the Caribbean coast, Cartagena de Indias was one of the first cities to be founded by the Spanish in South America, and today is famed both for its history and beauty.

Our hotel is in the heart of the old-town, surrounded by the city walls. We'll be taking an alternative tour this afternoon, exploring the historical centre as well as the seafront and laidback neighbourhoods by bicycle. The city is fairly flat and very easy to discover by bike. More than just cycling past historic buildings, you'll be enveloped by history as the guide tells us stories dating back hundreds of years. Cycling past the sea walls is a welcome breath of fresh air in the heat. We encourage even the most beginner of cyclist to take part in this tour - safety is paramount and the pace will be slow, with ample time to take photos and listen to our knowledgeable guide as we explore the city.

For people who would prefer something different, why not visit the national aviary or take a canoe ride through the mangroves of the fishing village at La Boquilla.

Climate and country information

Colombia

Climate

The dry season in Colombia roughly runs from December to March/April and also a slightly 'drier' period from July to September. These are among the best times to travel, although visits outside of these months are very manageable. The Caribbean coast is very hot and humid all year round (always around or above 30°C), although the offshore breeze between December and March makes this a more popular time to visit. Due to the high altitude locations of places like Bogota, Manizales and Armenia temperatures here can be quite cool during 'winter' months (Nov to Mar/ Apr) and the nights are cool to cold at anytime of the year. The coffee harvest seasons are March to May and September to November; it is during these periods that it is possible to see the red coffee beans and watch the whole process of coffee production.

Clothing

For this trip you will need to pack for all weathers, as you travel through several different climatic zones. In the Andes (Bogota and Salento), warm clothing is useful, particularly in the evenings when the temperature can drop sharply at night. Lightweight clothing is necessary for the Caribbean coast with long sleeve shirts and trousers ideal to provide protection from the sun and insect bites. A waterproof is essential as it can rain at any time of year.

Footwear

Comfortable hiking boots/trekking shoes, shoes and/or sandals.

Luggage

20kg

Luggage: On tour

One main piece of baggage and daypack. Remember you are expected to carry your own luggage so don't overload yourself.

Equipment

A torch, water bottle, good quality sunglasses, sun hat, insect repellent and high factor sunscreen are all essential.

Tipping

Explore leader

Tipping isn't compulsory, and we work hard to ensure that our leaders all receive a fair wage. However, you might want to recognise a leader that's done a great job or really added to your trip by giving them a tip. We're often asked about the recommended amount. It's a tricky one, and down to personal preference, but we'd recommend between £15 to £20 per person per week as a guideline

Local crew

Although entirely voluntary, tipping is a recognized part of life in this region of the world. Some local staff will look to members of the group for personal recognition of particular services provided. In order to make things easier for you, your leader may organise a group's tips kitty for included activities and meals and if this is the case, they will account for it throughout the tour.

Accordingly, you should allow US$ 40, approx. 134'000 Pesos for group tipping

For all non-included services and meals on your trip please tip independently at your discretion. In restaurants and hotels a 'voluntary' 10% tax for service is included on bills. On top of this, it is common to leave no more than a further 5% for good service

International Departure Taxes

None for UK citizens, Canadian citizens have an entry tax of 68US$.

Colombia

Food and drink

The costs for meals may vary depending upon location, type of restaurant and number of courses eaten and so the prices given are an average guide. Local restaurants located off the beaten track may be less expensive, whereas an upmarket restaurant located in the centre of a major city may charge more.

Lunch price	Dinner price	Beer price	Water price
£5	£10	£1.6	£0.4

Foreign Exchange

Local currency

Colombian Peso (COP).

Recommended Currency For Exchange

You can choose to either change your money in advance or on arrival at the airport. Here you will find both ATMs and Bureau de Change. The exchange rate with the COP is approximately COP 4'200 to the British Pound. We recommend you take some emergency cash in USD as the GBP exchange isn't very good. Notes should be in good condition otherwise they may not be accepted. Please check on line for up to date information

Where To Exchange

Your tour leader can also advise you on arrival.

ATM Availability

ATMs can be found in the major towns and cities for cash withdrawals in COP. Always have some cash back up as they are not always reliable

Credit Card Acceptance

Credit card are widely accepted in many shops and restaurants but some may be subject to a service charge

Travellers Cheques

We do not recommend Travellers Cheques

Transport, Accommodation & Meals

In Bogota we're located near the La Candelaria area, near the Gold Museum and the other attractions of this district. ## Why book this trip

This trip is an excellent opportunity for someone who is short on time to visit five of Colombia's key highlights in just 9 days. Not just remaining in the cities, this holiday gets you off the main track into the countryside and to some of Colombia's hidden gems.

In Colombia, we work with a supplier who's belief in the importance of sustainable and responsible travel really aligns with Explore's. Every booking made with them includes a contribution to a reforestation project taking place in various different parts of Colombia. For Explore's customers, this equates to approximately one tree per person per day of the trip. This project is done in partnership with a Colombian company called C02Cero, who work together with businesses and communities to develop innovative and sustainable solutions to climate change in Colombia. All trees are native and are being planted strategically in particular eco systems of Andean forest or paramo, with the aim of regenerating the soil, creating new habitats for animal species and, of course, removing carbon from the atmosphere.
