Drive to Danang, fly to Ho Chi Minh City. Explore Old Saigon, and discover 'Secret Weapons Bunker'

This afternoon we will experience a different side of Ho Chi Minh City, away from the major sights where we take a walk through Old Saigon's back alleys. We make our way to District 3 by cyclo (cycle carriages with a seat at the front) and turn off the main thoroughfare and into the maze of narrow streets of this bustling district. Our walk takes us past ramshackle shopfronts, through local markets selling anything from colourful fruit to bootleg DVDs, and past houses, churches and schools, all squeezed into the small buildings that line the narrow alleys. It's a fascinating inter-connected community here that is a stone's throw from the city centre, yet feels a far cry from the modern buildings and throngs of tourists. We stop at a local stall for a traditional Vietnamese coffee (brewed coffee served sweet with condensed milk) where we can also sample 'Banh Mi' - a Vietnamese take on the humble French baguette - freshly baked and packed with a combo of traditional and more exotic, aromatic ingredients.

The walk ends the so-called 'secret weapons' bunker'. A small unassuming 'tube house' nestled in a quiet neighbourhood hides a trap door in the floor, concealing a basement stocked full of rifles, grenades and ammunition. The bunker played a key role in the TET Offensive of 1968, it was the base from which the Viet Cong's "Team 5" launched their assault, and its location was only revealed after the end of the war. We have some time to explore the house and bunker, filled with decommissioned weapons and photographs, news clippings and memorabilia from the wartime.

ACCOMMODATION:

Liberty Hotel Saigon Parkview (or similar)

Grade: Standard Hotel

MEALS PROVIDED: BREAKFAST

DAY 9 - Morning visit to Cu Chi Tunnels; Afternoon free with optional visit to a water park

After breakfast this morning we head out to visit the infamous Cu Chi tunnels. First constructed by the Vietnamese during their colonial war with the French, the tunnels were later greatly expanded and went on to achieve notoriety during the Vietnam War, when they served as an underground command base for 10,000 Viet Cong troops. Exploring Cu Chi gives some idea as to the conditions that the Vietnamese and their American adversaries had to endure (the tunnels are narrow and can be quite claustrophobic). The afternoon allows for more time in the city including an optional visit to the waterpark, a great way to cool off from the mid-day sun.

ACCOMMODATION:

Liberty Hotel Saigon Parkview (or similar)

Grade: Standard Hotel

DAY 10 - Drive to the Mekong Delta, cycle ride, homestay and cooking lesson

Leaving the city, we drive to the Mekong Delta and catch a boat to the start point of our cycle ride. We cycle for around 10-12 km along the flat Cai Thai village path with constant views of the delta as we wind our way around its many tributaries. The route is often shaded which is helpful to combat the humidity (the boat can pick up cyclists at various stopping points if required). Along the way, we visit Mrs Nani's home who will show us how to make rice paper in the traditional way and Mr and Mrs Chin's home who will provide refreshments that include her famous 'Banh Tieu' (traditional doughnut). We return to the boat where we have lunch on-board and sail close to our night stop. Transferring from our cruise boat to a sampan craft, which is a small traditional boat that is regularly used by the villagers to travel along the delta, we complete our journey to our homestay close by. Set in a lovely garden setting with a main lounge area and dining room, accommodation is en-suite (shower and toilet) with traditional décor throughout. After settling into our simple but clean accommodation, we have a Vietnamese cooking lesson in the afternoon and the owners usually give a traditional dancing and singing show to entertain their guests.

ACCOMMODATION:
Ut Quynh Homestay (or similar)

Grade: Simple Homestay

MEALS PROVIDED: BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

DAY 11 - Morning cruise on the Mekong Delta. Drive to Chau Doc on the border of Vietnam and Cambodia.

Leaving our homestay behind, we cruise along the delta to the famous Cai Be Floating Market. One of the most colourful attractions of the Mekong area is its floating markets and we visit one of the biggest in the Delta at Cai Be. Spend some time cruising through the market and soaking up the atmosphere of this unique trading place. After our visit, we drive onto Chau Doc on the border of Vietnam and Cambodia via a stop at the emerald green wetlands of Tra Su where we take a boat trip in Tra Su Cajeput Forest with its many water hyacinths and water lilies.

ACCOMMODATION:

DAY 12 - Morning boat to Phnom Penh and city tour

Driving to the jetty in Chau Doc this morning, we board an early morning boat to Phnom Penh, a four and a half hour river journey that takes us up the Hau Giang River into neighbouring Cambodia. The afternoon is spent discovering Phnom Penh, Cambodia's fascinating and colourful capital. We visit the National Museum of Arts and the grand elegance of the French built Royal Palace, whose spectacular pagoda-style structure is without doubt one of the city's most recognisable landmarks. Later we'll take in the hilltop sanctuary of Wat Phnom, the monument from which the city gets its name.

MEALS PROVIDED: BREAKFAST

DAY 13 - Flight to Siem Reap and afternoon visit to the Roluos group of temples near Angkor Wat

We take the morning flight from Phnom Penh to Siem Reap and drive to our hotel which will be our home for the next two nights.

In the afternoon we visit the Roluos group of temples dating from the 9th and 10th centuries, making these some of the earliest permanent structures built by Khmer. There are three main temples in the site including Preah Ko (or Sacred Bull), Bakong whose design corresponds to the worlds of mythical beings (Nagas, Garudas, Raksasas and Yaksas) and the Lolei Temples which are famed for their carvings and inscriptions.

ACCOMMODATION:

Travelling by local tuk tuk we visit three of the most famous temple sites, those of Angkor Thom, Ta Prohm and Angkor Wat. The fortified city of Angkor Thom was originally built at the end of the 12th Century and was a formidable sight in its day; surrounded by eight metre walls, towering gates and a crocodile filled moat. We also visit the atmospheric ruins at Ta Phrom, made famous in the Tomb Raider film and then finish the day viewing the beautiful setting of Angkor Wat, without doubt the most renowned and impressive of Siem Reap's jungle temples.

Vietnam

Climate

As Vietnam is a long, narrow country from north to south climate conditions vary considerably. The climate can be divided into three distinct patterns between the north, central and south regions. The climate in the north is generally humid and subtropical, although the winter months from November to March can be colder with temperatures from 10 - 15 degrees. Summer months, May to September can be quite hot with temperatures from 30 - 35 degrees. Meanwhile south Vietnam enjoys a tropical climate all year round, with little variation throughout the year (around 27 - 32 degrees), however May to November is the rainy season when short, heavy downpours are quite frequent. Central Vietnam lies somewhere in between. The coastal strip is usually dry and hotter from April to October while November to March is wetter and cooler.
