DAY 1 - Join tour Lima with afternoon city bike tour

Our adventure begins in Peru's historic capital, the 'City of Kings' founded by Spanish conquistadors in the 16th century. At its heart lies a UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with a dazzling collection of colonial mansions, opulent cathedrals and baroque convents that hide a labyrinthine network of underground passageways and catacombs. After a free morning to relax after the flight, this afternoon we'll take a short walk through to the Miraflores district to collect our bikes, before an absorbing gentle 3 hours cycling tour of Miraflores and San Isidro, two of Lima's most exclusive neighbourhoods. Please note participants are required to competently ride a bike in order to take part in this activity. If you would like further time to recover from the international flight, you can relax at the hotel rather than undertake the bike ride.

DAY 2 - Fly to Cusco; tour of the city

Leaving Lima behind today we head next towards Cusco, high in the Andes at 3400M, the ancient heartland of the Incas. Arriving in the city later this morning we'll have time to settle into our hotel before a tour of historic Cusco. Believed to be the oldest continuously inhabited city in South America, Cusco is imbued with an atmosphere of mystery and grandeur. The archaeological capital of the America's, the Spanish-style city, with its tiled roofs and arcaded plazas, is built on the foundations of the old Inca ruins and today's tour will take in the Spanish elegance of the Plaza de Armas, as well as the Inca walls of Hatunrumiyoc and the ancient Sun Temple of Coricancha, one of the city's most revered monuments.

Meals Provided: Breakfast

DAY 3 - Explore the Inca ruins around Cusco plus feed llamas

A guided walk through the ancient monuments that lie scattered around Cusco includes the sacrificial ruins at Qenko and the Inca baths at Tambomachay. We'll also visit the spectacular fortress of Saqsaywaman, whose huge zigzagging stone walls were constructed to defend the old Incan capital. Legend has it that it took 20,000 men 90 years to finish the citadel at Saqsaywaman and it became the site of one of the most fiercely fought battles of the Spanish conquest, when the Inca warriors made one last desperate stand in an attempt to drive the Spanish out. It was a battle that ultimately ended in defeat and death for thousands of the Incas. We also visit the town of Pisac which lies along the banks of the Urubamba River, at the entrance to the Sacred Valley. Famed for its bustling market, the town is dominated by the hilltop ruins of its ancient fortress, which once guarded the southern entrance to the valley. We travel to the site which boasts well-preserved temples, before walking down to the impressive agricultural terraces that curves around the hillside to visit the town's colourful market. The journey to Pisac also takes us by way of Awana Kancha, where we'll stop at a local farm to feed some llamas and alpacas, probably the friendliest and most endearing animals that you are ever likely to meet.

It is also considered by many to be an expression of Peruvian culture. The rest of the day is free to relax or explore the city further.

DAY 5 - Exploring Misminay Village; village activities and overnight homestay

Driving to Chequerec this morning, we then begin a 2 hour walk through the narrow lanes and fields that blanket this part of the Sacred Valley. Our destination is the village of Misminay, site of a unique community based project that offers us a fascinating glimpse of a way of life that can trace its origins back to the Incas. After being greeted by the villagers we'll enjoy lunch, before joining in this afternoon with a range of activities. We'll learn how to weave traditional cloth, finding out how to wash and colour the wool using time-honoured methods. We'll also visit some of the local farms to learn about the local agriculture, before settling down this evening to enjoy a night in a village house, beneath the same skies that the Inca's gazed up at centuries ago.

The villagers will greet us with a display of traditional dancing and music before we learn how to work with the villagers digging, preparing the soil and planting trees using traditional techniques and tools that are still used today. We dine with the family with natural products from the area used for lunch with the knowledge that we have helped the village not only contribute to the protection of the environment but also retaining more water in the community through native trees being planted.

Accompanied by your hosts, you will walk in the afternoon to the upper side of the community, called Mirador de Moray where you can enjoy views of the surrounding area and the archaeological complex of Moray, unique for its circular terraces which were used to grow crops. There is even the chance to participate in a ceremony to give thanks to the Pachamama (mother earth) and the Apus (Andean Mountains) to thank them for the food and asking them to protect you in your trip. This evening gives a real treat - we have an evening meal by a campfire allowing locals to tell Andean stories and play traditional music as well as explain the Inca constellation and how they use their knowledge of the stars to determine the agricultural calendar.

Clothing

In the highlands, conditions are generally dry and sunny during the day. Nights can be very cold at altitude so it is essential to bring adequate warm clothing especially between May and August. It can drop as low as -10°C at night. Be prepared for rain. Take your swimming costume for the thermal baths at Aguas Calientes. A sunhat is essential.

Socks

It is best to wear a pair of liner socks under a pair of fairly thick loop stitch socks. This helps to protect your feet against blisters.

Avoid nylon socks, they are abrasive, don't breathe well and can cause blisters.

T-shirts We recommend polyester/polypropylene fabrics which keep you warm even when wet.

Waterproofs

Breathable waterproofs not only protect against rain and wind but also stop you from overheating. They breathe and avoid condensation which you will experience from nylon waterproofs.

Thick jumper/fleece jacket

A thick jumper or fleece jacket is necessary as nights can be very cold at altitude, especially in July.

Make sure that your waterproof jacket is loose enough to wear over your sweater or fleece.

Shorts

Shorts can be very comfortable to walk in but you must carry long trousers with you in case you get either sunburned or cold.

Please remember we shall be passing through the occasional remote areas and villages and short shorts (especially on ladies) can give offence to the local inhabitants. Longer, looser fitting shorts are, in any case, more comfortable to walk in.

Gloves & Hat

Especially useful around camp in the morning and in the evening at higher altitudes.

Footwear

Trainers or Trekking sandals

Useful in towns and when travelling. Sandals are ideal for rafting as they protect the soles of your feet and also keep them cool.

Luggage

20kg

Luggage: On tour

One main piece of baggage and daypack. Remember you are expected to carry your own luggage so don't overload yourself.

Please allow yourself one main piece of luggage and a daysac. Remember, you are expected to carry your own baggage, so don't overload yourself, a soft wheely bag may be easier to manage than a suit case.

Equipment

You will need a good insect repellent, suncream, a small torch and a personal water bottle.

Toiletries

Try to keep heavy cosmetics etc to a minimum. Essentials are toothbrush/paste, soap and a small towel. Wet Wipes are great for a quick clean up in your tent, so bring a pack of those.

Tipping

Explore leader

At your discretion you might also consider tipping your Tour Leader in appreciation of the efficiency and service you receive.

Local crew

In this region, tipping is a recognised part of life across the service industry. Local staff will look to members of the group for personal recognition of particular services provided.

To assist with this your Explore Leader may organise a group tips kitty for included activities and meals, they will then account for kitty use throughout the tour.

For this we suggest US$40 per family member.

For all non-included services and meals on your trip please tip independently at your discretion.
