Itinerary

Itineraries on some departure dates may differ, please select the itinerary that you wish to explore.

DAY 1 - Join trip in Buenos Aires

Arrive in Buenos Aires, Argentina's capital, located on the southern shores of the Rio de la Plata. Since its founding by Pedro de Mendoza in 1536 the city has thrived on trade and its vibrant streets are filled with an eclectic mix of European architectural styles, with Spanish, French and Italian classicism rubbing shoulders with remnants of Victorian grandeur.

For those arriving on time our Leader plans to meet you in the hotel reception at 6pm for the welcome meeting and for those that wish, there is the chance to go out for dinner. There are no activities planned today, so you are free to arrive in Buenos Aires at any time. If you would like to receive a complimentary airport transfer today, you'll need to arrive into either Aeroparque Internacional Jorge Newbery (AEP) or Ezeiza International Airport (EZE), a 30 minute or 1 hour drive respectively from our hotel. Should you miss the meeting, your leader will inform you of any essential information as soon as you catch up.

If your flight arrives earlier in the day, you could explore this lively city by wandering the city streets, admiring the impressive architecture and relaxing parks, or enjoy the traditional Porteno pastime of people watching from the many sidewalk cafes.

DAY 2 - City tour; afternoon at leisure

Today we will take a tour of the city, exploring the major landmarks around the Plaza de Mayo, site of the famous mass demonstrations by supporters of Juan Domingo Peron in 1945, organised by his wife Eva. We'll also visit the elaborate mausoleums of the famous Recoleta Cemetery, the final resting place of some of Argentina's most revered figures, including Eva Peron herself. Our tour will also take us via Palermo Park and the tango-filled streets of La Caminito in the La Boca district of the city. Settled originally by Italian migrants, the area is famed for its colourful houses and lively street performers.

After our city tour we have some free time, which you may wish to spend wandering the cobbled streets of the arty district of San Telmo. There is so much about Buenos Aires to love, and its diversity means that there is something to satisfy every traveller. This evening we'll have the option to discover the most Latin of dances at a tango show.

DAY 3 - Fly to Bariloche in Patagonia's Lake District

The Argentinian Lake District is a hub for adventure-seekers looking to hike, ski, bike and raft in this impressive landscape of jagged snow-covered peaks, rainforest and glacier-fed lakes. This morning we fly down to the alpine town of Bariloche, which has a picture-perfect setting on the banks of the emerald-blue Lake Nahuel Huapi, surrounded by mountain scenery.

The afternoon is at our leisure to explore the city. With a history of German and Swiss immigration, there are lots of chocolate shops and fantastic craft breweries in the city. Take a stroll down the lakeside to take in the views, perhaps passing the quirky 'Steeple in the Water' (a replica of the city's church steeple, poking out of the lake), before visiting the Patagonia Museum to learn more about the culture and history of the region and ending up in one of the city's many brew pubs.

DAY 4 - Discover the Patagonian Lake District on foot; chairlift up Campanario Hill

We'll spend the full day exploring some of the grandiose mountain scenery of Patagonia. Starting at the southern shore of Lake Nahuel Huapi, we drive up to the Llao Llao Peninsula, a winding mountain route that takes us past vistas of the glittering lake and tree-covered hills. We take a chairlift up the Cerro Campanario, which allows for one of the most breathtaking panoramic views in the area.

We'll also visit the Colonia Suiza village, which in 1895 was the first settlement of Europeans in this area of Argentina. Nowadays it has a vaguely hippy flair, with a large artisan market and an open-air food court selling a variety of local dishes like cheesy empanadas and juicy grilled meats fresh off the parrilla (grill).

Finally, we have two easy hikes around Gutierrez Lake, approximately 8kms and 1.5 hours each. These take us through small waterfalls and past fantastic viewpoints of yet another of this region's stunning lakes.

DAY 5 - View the total eclipse with a local astronomer

A total eclipse of the sun will take place today, 14 December 2020. We will be driving to the town hall of Piedra del Aguila (a rustic countryside estancia on the banks of the Limay River), approximately a 2.5 hour drive from Bariloche. We aim to have the estancia just for Explore groups, although this may change prior to departure at the discretion of the local municipality.

Explore will have a local astronomer with us to provide expert information and to answer any questions that you may have, as well as providing eclipse glasses for you to watch the phenomenon safely. We'll be having lunch at the country house - a traditional Argentinian 'asado' style barbecue.

The Moon orbits the Earth almost 13 times a year, and an eclipse happens if it lines up exactly with the Earth and the Sun. Solar eclipses occur at New Moon, when the Moon is between Earth and the Sun. Lunar eclipses occur at Full Moon, when Earth is between the Sun and the Moon. A total eclipse of the sun occurs when the moon appears the same size as the sun, thus completely obscuring the light.

Eclipses do not take place every month because the orbits of the Moon and Earth are tilted at an angle. Most of the time, the line-up is not precise enough for an eclipse. When an eclipse is total, the solar corona can be seen as a white halo around the black disk of the Moon.

Near the beginning and end of total eclipses, the thin, visible slice of the Sun appears broken up into blobs of light. These blobs are called 'Baily's beads' after the British astronomer Francis Baily. They happen because the edge of the Moon is not smooth but jagged with mountain peaks. When just one bead is visible, the effect is often likened to a diamond ring.

The partial eclipse will begin at approximately 11.45am, with totality at 13.08pm, after which point we will return to our accommodation in Bariloche.

DAY 6 - Sail across Lake Nahuel Huapi and cross into Chile; optional zip wiring

Today is the start of our two-day lake crossing, as we set sail through three different lakes of the Andes, travelling between the lakes by overland vehicle. There are several ways to undertake the border crossing between Chile and Argentina, but this boat journey is undoubtedly the most scenic option as we sail across emerald-blue lakes, surrounded by rainforest and volcanoes. If we're lucky with the weather, the views from the deck of the catamaran will be outstanding.

On a practical level, today's journey consists of two boat trips connected by buses that will take us into Chile. Our first boat sets off from Puerto Panuelo, approximately a one hour drive from Bariloche. The boat journey takes us across Lake Nahuel Huapi to Puerto Blest, a trip full of eye-popping mountain scenery. A short bus ride and another 40 minute boat trip across the Lago Frias brings us to our docking point at Puerto Frias. From here, a two-hour drive will take us across the Chilean border crossing and customs, before arriving in Peulla at approximately 2pm this afternoon, where we check-in to our hotel.

This remote place has very little infrastructure. Wifi is patchy and the amenities are simple but comfortable - the joy is in the natural beauty surrounding it. For those who wish, there are opportunities to go zip wiring or horse riding this afternoon. Alternatively, walk down by the lake shore and take in the peaceful views.

DAY 7 - Sail across Lake Todos los Santos from Peulla to Petrohue; drive to Puerto Varas

Today's boat journey takes us two hours, sailing across Lake Todos los Santos to Petrohue. After our arrival in Petrohue, we'll visit the Petrohue Waterfalls, a cascading torrent of emerald-blue with a stunning backdrop of the Osorno Volcano, before driving the one-hour journey to Puerto Varas and our hotel, based beside the shores of Lake Llanquihue. We'll arrive in the late evening, approximately 8pm.

All boat and vehicle journeys during the lake crossings are not private - we will be joining other passengers not from the Explore group.

ACCOMMODATION:
Hotel Cabana Del Lago (or similar)

DAY 8 - Drive to Puerto Montt and fly to Santiago

Depending on the flight times, we may have time to explore Puerto Varas this morning, taking a stroll on the shores of Lake Llanquihue, the second largest in Chile and one of the shimmering jewels of Chile's Lake District.

We aim to a flight at approximately 2pm, arriving into Santiago in the late afternoon (flight times are subject to change), giving us the evening free to take in some of the nightlife in this modern city.

DAY 9 - Explore Santiago on foot; visit a winery and taste the regional specialties

Lying in the shadow of the Andes, Santiago's historic colonial centre and acres of green space contrast sharply with its modern business district and quickly-growing urban sprawl. Today is devoted to exploring the scenic capital by bus and on foot. The old part of the city, around the Alameda, contains a number of fine buildings, statues and gardens, including the impressive Presidential Palace. We also visit the Mercado Central and the Fine Arts Museum, and later take a 15 minute walk up Santa Lucia hill for panoramic views of the city and its mountainous backdrop.

Chile is famed for its wine-making prowess, most notably for its fine Cabernet Sauvignon, and this afternoon we will be taking a tour of one of the city's many wineries. The end of our tour will include a tasting - a fitting end to our time in the capital.

Hotel Fundador (or similar)

DAY 10 - Trip ends in Santiago

The trip ends after breakfast at our hotel in Santiago.

There are no activities planned today, so you are free to depart from Santiago at any time. If your flight is departing later in the day, luggage storage facilities are available at our hotel. If you would like to receive a complimentary airport transfer today, you need to depart from Santiago's International Airport (airport code: SCL).

Clothing

December is just coming into summer in the southern hemisphere, but Patagonia's weather is very changeable - it can go from strong sun one day to high winds the next. Sunblock is essential, as well as a rain jacket and sturdy shoes to walk in. On the eclipse day you will be outside with the astronomer for part of the day, so pack layers, and both a sunhat and warm hat in order to prepare for all weathers.

On the boats in Patagonia, your main bag will be stored securely and you won't have access to them during the days, so you'll need to pack a daysack with anything you will need on the boat, like warm layers, camera, suncream etc.

Footwear

Comfortable and sturdy walking shoes or boots with good ankle support and tread are useful for the walks. Trainers/sandals for relaxing in.

Luggage

15Kg

Luggage: On tour

One main piece of baggage and daypack.

Total allowance for your international flight: 44lb/20kg. Luggage limit for domestic flights is 15kg.

Remember you are expected to carry your own luggage so don't overload yourself.

Equipment

Eclipse glasses will be provided for you in Argentina. We advise you bring a water bottle for day to day use.

Tipping

Explore leader

Tipping isn't compulsory, and we work hard to ensure that our leaders all receive a fair wage. However, you might want to recognise a leader that's done a great job or really added to your trip by giving them a tip. We're often asked about the recommended amount. It's a tricky one, and down to personal preference, but we'd recommend between £15 to £20 per person per week as a guideline

Local crew

Although entirely voluntary, tipping is a recognized part of life in this region of the world. Some local staff will look to members of the group for personal recognition of particular services provided. In order to make things easier for you, your leader may organise a group's tips kitty for included activities and meals and if this is the case, they will account for it throughout the tour.

Accordingly, you should allow US$ 65, approx. 2'900 Argentine Pesos for group tipping

For all non-included services and meals on your trip please tip independently at your discretion.

Accommodation notes

In Peulla, our midway point during the boat crossing, the hotel has fantastic views right over the mountains and lake Todos los Santos. Due to its remote location, the hotel could use some care and maintenance, but the ensuite rooms are comfortable and the setting is outstanding. For a one-night stay it has everything you will need. Our other hotels during the trip are well located, and perfect for exploring the towns and cities that you'll pass through.
