Our trip starts at Faro airport from where we drive due west for approximately one hour and a half to the coastal town of Sagres. His fortress, Fortaleza de Sagres rebuilt in the 18th century, can also be seen from our hotel. Today Sagres is a small tranquil town with a picturesque harbour and several nearby beaches. Country information

Portugal

Climate

Overall, spring, early summer and autumn are ideal times for a trip to Portugal - though the weather varies enormously from region to region. The northern high plains has both extremes, stiflingly hot in summer, bitterly cold and swept by freezing winds in winter. The Atlantic coast, in contrast, has a tendency to damp and mist, and a relatively brief, humid summer. The Mediterranean south is warm virtually all year round. The islands have very different weather patterns due to their positioning and can have sudden rain falls throughout the year so waterproofs are recommended even in the summer.
