You begin the walk at the side of the river and follow it through fields of olive trees, passing by the St Angelo rock church. Following the coast you have several opportunities to stop for a dip in the crystal clear waters. You continue along the coast towards the Punta Palascia Lighthouse from which on clear days you can see the Albanian mountains across the Adriatic Sea. ### Trek details

On this journey you walk 71 km over 6 days (an average of just under 12 km per day). The distances and elevation are not great but we have graded the route as moderate because the terrain is rocky and the trail not always obviously visible.
