DAY 2 - Walk from Camogli to Portofino via San Fruttuoso Abbey

Your walk today from Camogli to Portofino is on one of the main paths of the Portofino Regional Park. The first section is quite steep and takes you to the village of San Rocco. If you'd prefer a more relaxed start to your first day then it is possible to take a bus to San Rocco. You continue to San Fruttuoso where you can see the beautiful seafront abbey. It's a restored Medieval stronghold which was originally built for the Benedictines of Monte Cassino. From San Fruttuoso, you can choose to walk or take a ferry boat (about 20 minutes crossing) to the beautiful harbour town of Portofino. Once here you can enjoy a walk (one kilometre) to Il Faro (the light house), located at the extreme point of the promontory, to admire the wonderful view. From Portofino you can take either the train or a ferry boat back to Camogli.

You can expect today's 13 kilometre walk to take approximately five-and-a-half hours. If you opt to start the walk in San Rocco, the walking distance will be seven kilometres and it will take approximately three-and-a-half hours.

The first part of this walk to Framura is extremely scenic with fantastic panoramic views over the northern Ligurian coast. If you wish to shorten the walk then you can end it here in the idyllic town of Framura and then return to Bonassola by train. If you want to take a longer walk then you can continue to Deiva Marina before returning to Bonassola by train. Deiva Marina gives you a taste of the old Riviera with its timeless elegance. The town is set between two cliffs and has a long beach which is a popular swimming spot.
