DAY 2 - Visit Casco Antiguo and Panama Canal

This morning you visit the 'Casco Antiguo', meaning Old Quarter, it is the heart of colonial Panama City. Its ramparts were built to fend off marauders and encircle the promontory, and a stroll along the top affords views of the 'Bridge of the Americas' and far in the distance the skyscrapers of the modern city, a total contrast to the Spanish plazas and colonial buildings all around you. You'll see the cathedral, Presidential Palace, National Grand Theatre, the prison chambers and the French Plaza along the way. Your journey continues to the Miraflores Locks to see the famous Panama Canal and appreciate the scale of this engineering miracle. Running 50 miles, the canal was carved out of the rainforest and through hillsides, lakes were dammed and locks built. After a serious French attempt costing in excess of 20,000 lives, the US successfully completed this remarkable endeavour after 10 years of toil in 1914. You will have the opportunity to watch a short video about the canal and see the exhibits in the centre. Your last stop is the Panama Biomuseo, developed with the Smithsonian Tropical Research Institute, where you can visit the permanent Bridge of Life exhibit to learn about the important research taking place in order to understand our biologically diverse planet.

Following your tram ride you may wish to visit the orchid farm, where these exotic flowers flourish in the tropical climate; the butterfly farm where visitors can see some of the 20 species native to Panama, or the aquarium where you can learn about over 100 freshwater fish found in the country. This afternoon you depart Panama City and fly to Isla Colon, Bocas del Toro.
