After enjoying stunning views and a picnic lunch at the summit, we retrace our steps back to the bus for our return to the agriturismo.

At an altitude of 2054 metres, this is the highest peak in Tuscany. On our circuitous route through the heart of the Apennines and Tuscan Emiliano Park, we will pass through beech forests and beautiful landscapes, offering wonderful alpine views.

DAY 4 - Optional walks on Cinque Terre Coast or in Garfagnana Valley

Today is left free with two options if you do wish to walk. The first option, (needing a minimum of two customers to operate), involves a long day travelling by train to the stunning World Heritage coastline of the Cinque Terre region, where five tiny villages nestle among sheer cliffs to create one of the Riviera's most scenic delights. We take the train to Corniglia, the only one of the five villages not sitting directly at sea level. The station itself is below the village down a flight of several hundred steps. Luckily, there are some great views to enjoy during your rest stops on the way up! We spend some time in Corniglia before setting out on a walk of around an hour and a half to the neighbouring Cinque Terre village of Vernazza. We pass through a landscape of vineyards, olive groves and native plants including aloe and prickly pear. On arrival, there's time to enjoy lunch at one of the many restaurants - a plate of seafood perhaps? In the afternoon we continue for another hour and a half along the coast to Monterosso al Mare. For anyone not wishing to join the afternoon walk, there's the option to take a scenic boat ride to Monterosso. In Monterosso there's time to explore the side streets, known as the 'carrugi', before heading back to Garfagnana on the train.

For those not wishing to visit the Cinque Terre, there's the option of taking various self-guided walking routes direct from the agriturismo ranging from five to 14 kilometres. Maps and route information will be provided.

Today's seven kilometre optional Cinque Terre walk is expected to take around four hours with plenty of time to explore the villages that we pass through.

DAY 5 - Free day to visit Lucca or Pisa by train

Today has been left free for us to enjoy more of the highlights of this beautiful region at our own pace. Options include mountain biking, or perhaps a day of gentle relaxation at our accommodation. Another popular alternative is to take a train ride across the Lucchese Plains to the picturesque city of Lucca, to explore its Romanesque churches and Renaissance architecture. A visit to Pisa is another possibility, with its famous leaning tower and beautiful Campo del Miracoli - stunning testaments to a time when the city was one of the Mediterranean's major maritime powers.

DAY 6 - Garfagnana Valley exploration walk

Much of the Garfagnana Valley is national parkland, a beautiful region of unspoilt wilderness that is home to deer, wild boar, martens and eagles. Sandwiched between the Alpi Apuane and the jagged spine of the Apennines, the Garfagnana is one of Tuscany's most visually impressive and staunchly traditional regions, where local customs and a love of fine food remain an important part of everyday life. Today we take a walk along the lower reaches of the valley, hiking through the villages and lush landscapes that line the banks of the Serchio River.

Today's 14 kilometre walk is expected to take approximately six hours with an ascent and descent of 350 metres.

DAY 7 - Trek in the Alpi Apuane Mountains

This morning we drive south towards the locality of Piglionico and a memorial to the Resistance of the second world war. Our destination is the Pania della Croce (the stomach of the dead man of Garfagnana!) at an altitude of 1858 metres. It's the third highest peak in the Alpi Apuane range and on a clear day affords magnificent views of the Mediterranean coastline and surrounding mountains. Setting out from an altitude of around 1,100 metres we ascend on a waymarked trail to a mountain refuge, the Rifugio Rossi, where we can take a rest before trekking on to the summit. Anyone not wishing to continue to the summit can relax here as the descent from the top follows the same trail back down as far as the refuge from where we continue on a different route all the way to Piglionico.

Today's 12 kilometre walk is expected to take approximately five hours with an ascent and descent of 758 metres.

Agriturismo Le Casine Di Braccicorti (or similar)

DAY 8 - Trip ends at Pisa Airport

Today we depart Castelnuovo di Garfagnana and drive back to Pisa, a two hour journey that ends at the city's airport, where our trip finishes at 1100.

For those of you that have an afternoon or evening flight, there is the opportunity to travel into Pisa before returning to the airport for your flight. The airport has luggage storage facilities and there is a regular monorail service to the central station. This is at your own expense and unaccompanied but the leader will be able to assist with information and what better way to finish a trip to Tuscany than visiting Pisa!

Light rainwear may be needed at any time of year, and a warm fleece/jacket is recommended for cooler evenings and nights. Take your swimming gear as our accommodation has a pool.

Footwear

We recommend you bring walking boots with ankle support- leather or fabric are both fine. Some of the paths are a bit rocky underfoot and so you could twist an ankle if not wearing boots. Make sure that your boots are worn-in and comfortable before the start of the trip. Also trainers or sandals for relaxing and general wear. We suggest that on international flights you either carry your walking boots in your hand luggage or wear them - should your luggage be lost or delayed, your own boots are the one thing that will be irreplaceable.

Accommodation notes

This tour stays at an agriturismo, where guesthouse accommodation is located on a working farm. Started in the 1950s as an initiative to reverse the closing down of small non-profitable farms, Italy's agriturismo movement encouraged farmers to redevelop their properties for paying guests by converting parts of the farm such as old barns and outhouses, into guest accommodation to supplement their agricultural income.

Le Casine di Braccicorti is surrounded by vineyards, fields and woodland, yet is still close to the centre of the small village of Villetta San Romano. The property enjoys stunning views of the surrounding mountains and offers comfortable, rustically furnished en-suite rooms. The friendly owners serve up home-cooked, traditional Italian meals, often using produce from the farm.

Guests are accommodated in both the main farm building (a former barn) and independent chalets which have been converted from the farm outhouse buildings. There are plenty of open terraces and patios equipped with tables and chairs where you can relax, and a beautiful wood burning stove for chillier evenings. The communal dining area is located in the main villa along with a lounge and relaxing reading area, where WiFi can also be accessed. The chalets accommodate guests in independent apartments, each for two people. Some have private bathrooms whilst others share a bathroom between the two apartments. No more than three people will share one bathroom. The two double rooms in the main villa have en suite bathrooms and are next to the communal lounge and dining room. There's an outdoor swimming pool with fabulous views.
