Itinerary

Itineraries on some departure dates may differ, please select the itinerary that you wish to explore.

DAY 1 - Join trip in Chania

Arrive in Chania, a beautiful old Venetian walled town, with a bustling harbour and lively tavernas. A great place to start your introduction to Crete.

For those arriving on time our Leader plans to meet you in the hotel reception at 6pm and for those that wish, there is the chance to go out for dinner. Due to the number of evening flights into Chania, your Leader plans to do the welcome meeting on the morning of day two, and will leave a message in reception with details on timings and everything else that you'll need for the day. There are no activities planned today, so you are free to arrive in Chania at any time. If you would like to receive a complimentary airport transfer today, you'll need to arrive at Chania International Airport (CHQ) which is around 20 minutes' drive from the hotel.

If your flight arrives earlier in the day, perhaps you might choose to stroll along the narrow streets to the Venetian harbour and along the harbour wall to the Lighthouse. There are numerous waterfront restaurants where you could sample a selection of Cretan meze.

ACCOMMODATION:
Arkadi Hotel (or similar)

Grade: Comfortable Hotel

DAY 2 - Walking tour of Chania; drive to Omalos Plateau

This morning we will take a walking tour around Chania. We will walk around the harbour, lined with pastel-coloured buildings and through the winding back streets, home to the traditional cobblers who make the very traditional Cretan leather boots. This afternoon we take a bus up the winding roads to the Omalos Plateau (1,082m). This wild plateau is situated in the middle of the massive White Mountains, poised on the edge of a titanic split in the rock and the gateway to the longest and perhaps most beautiful ravine in Europe, the Samaria Gorge. The isolation of the plateau made it an historic refuge for Cretan revolutionaries against the Turks.

Today's two kilometre walk is expected to take around one-and-a-half hours along a flat route.

ACCOMMODATION:

Neos Omalos Hotel (or similar)

Grade: Comfortable Hotel

SINGLE ROOM AVAILABLE

MEALS PROVIDED: BREAKFAST

DAY 3 - Hike Samaria Gorge to Agia Roumeli

Today we walk through this spectacular gorge. To make the complete descent to the fishing village of Agia Roumeli may take anywhere from 6 to 8 hours. We follow a steep zig-zag path, some 760m down into the gorge itself, past high cypress trees and many different alpine shrubs - and if we're very lucky, we may catch a glimpse of the wild Cretan Ibex (Kri Kri) leaping from ledge to ledge. In midsummer, the river dries to a trickle, but there are still stretches of water to be crossed with handy stepping stones. After walking for roughly three hours from the entrance at Xiliskalo, we stop at the now uninhabited village of Samaria, where the Venetian Church of Holy Mary with its old Byzantine mosaics and inscription over the front door can be seen. Now the gorge really starts to close in around us, and the river often disappears underground. After passing below the Church of Apendis Christos, we hike through the narrowest part, the sidheroportes (the 'iron gates', only 4 metres wide, but over 350m high), and continue along the rocky riverbed into the small village of Agia Roumeli.

Tonight we stay in a family ran property located on the beach of Agia Roumeli. The simply furnished rooms are en-suite with air-conditioning. The taverna is open all day for food, serving delicious Cretan food.

Today's 15 kilometre walk is expected to take around six-and-a-half hours with 1,250 metres of descent. There is an alternative walk along the coast that can be chosen by your Explore leader if the Samaria gorge is closed due to risky weather conditions.

ACCOMMODATION:
Paralia Rooms (or similar)

Grade: Simple Hotel

DAY 4 - Coastal walk to Loutro

Today we take a beautiful walk along the coast, following the well marked cliff path we walk through pine woods, passing by secluded beaches. At Ayios Pavlos we will see an old chapel situated on a ledge above the water, built on the spot that Saint Paul is said to have first arrived at in Crete. Inside the somewhat crumbling facade are frescos dating to the thirteenth century.

For those who would prefer not to walk today there is the option to have a relaxing morning in Roumeli and then take the ferry to Loutro (not included).

Today's 15 kilometre walk is expected to take around five-and-a-half hours with 275 metres of ascent and descent.

ACCOMMODATION:
Madares Pension (or similar)

Grade: Comfortable Pension

SINGLE ROOM AVAILABLE

DAY 5 - Exploring Loutro

This quaint seashore village, perched on craggy rocks and nestled in a cove, affords an opportunity to experience life in a less accessible part of the island. Most houses are the very traditional white with blue shutters providing a harmony of architecture. We'll spend the day here, perhaps taking a walk along the coast or inland, swimming or simply relaxing. An optional boat trip by water taxi can often be arranged to Marmara or Finix beach.

Alternatively, you may prefer something more active such as a full day or half day walk behind the village, up to the historic village of Anopolis or perhaps down the Aradena Gorge enjoying spectacular views of the coast en route. In the evening you may care to try the delicious fresh seafood caught by local fishermen.

Today's optional 12 kilometre walk is expected to take around five hours.

Madares Pension (or similar)

DAY 6 - Morning relaxing; ferry to Chora Sfakion; drive to Zaros

Today we get the ferry along the coast to Chora Sfakion. A pleasant coastal village with a few hundred inhabitants and an old reputation as a lair of brigands, smugglers and pirates. The Sfakians cherish their independence and see themselves as Sfakians first, Cretans second and Greeks third! As a rallying point for revolutionaries, there are many sea caves in the area which were used as great hiding places during disputes. We then journey by bus to Zaros in the rugged Idi Mountains. We'll pause en route at Preveli cliff-top monastery. Perched high above the sea, its fame was capped in World War Two when the monks sheltered allied troops who were stranded on the island after the Battle of Crete and helped them to escape from the beaches nearby. The views from here are magnificent. We also break the journey for a short while in the pretty Greek village of Spili. We plan to arrive in the village of Zaros in the early evening.

ACCOMMODATION:

Hotel Idi (or similar)

Grade: Comfortable Hotel

SINGLE ROOM AVAILABLE

DAY 7 - Hiking Zaros Gorge

Deep in the heart of Crete are the Ili Mountains. This region is very scenic and is particularly noted for its spring waters, which are bottled and sold throughout the island. Our primary reason for visiting Zaros is to walk in the surrounding mountains, and we set off after breakfast to explore the dramatic Rouvas Gorge. Local vehicles take us to a steep rough track from where we'll descend the dramatic 5km long gorge on foot enjoying spectacular views of the Psiloritis range as we go. The afternoon is left free for you to explore the surrounding area. Located in a peaceful setting overlooking the Koutsoulidi valley, this is an ideal spot to relax.

Today's five-and-a-half kilometre walk is expected to take around four-and-a-half hours with 540 metres of descent.

ACCOMMODATION:
Hotel Ili (or similar)

DAY 8 - Drive to Heraklion airport where the trip ends

We leave Zaros today to drive to Heraklion Airport where the trip ends.

There will be two transfers provided to Nikos Kazantzakis International Airport (HER) today, which is around a one hour drive from the hotel. The main morning transfer will arrive at the airport around 11.45am, a later afternoon transfer can also be arranged, and the time of this will depend on the group's flight times. The earliest your flight can depart is 1.45pm.

It can also be arranged for you to be dropped-off in Heraklion city centre so you can travel to the airport independently at a later time, there is luggage storage available at the airport.

Trip information

Climate and country information

Greece

Climate

Greece has such a vast geographical difference between the mainland and the islands, and travel is possible at all times of year but the climate can vary depending on when you go. During late spring or early autumn, in the months of April-May or September-October, temperatures are warm and pleasant, usually hovering around 25 degrees. Rainfall is low, but can be erratic during these months. Cooler evenings take the heat off the day. If you have booked a walking holiday, wild flowers bloom during the spring, adding colour to the hiking trails. Summers are hot and dry, with plenty of sunshine and little rain. Temperatures can go north of 35 degrees in July and August. On the islands, restaurants and bars may be busy with cruise ship passengers. While this period definitely gives you a 'summer holiday' feeling, those wishing to explore Greece's ancient sites may find the heat challenging. When travelling in winter, from late November to early March, the villages will be very quiet. Temperatures in Athens at this time are around 10-15 degrees, while the nights will be colder. Hotels in northern Greece in particular are well adapted to deal with cold winters, having proper heating and warm fires to retreat to after a day of exploring. This makes it a good destination for travel between November-March.

Tipping

Explore leader

Tipping isn't compulsory, and we work hard to ensure that our leaders all receive a fair wage. You may however, want to recognise a leader that has done a great job or really added to your trip by giving them a tip. We're often asked about the recommended amount. It is a tricky one, and down to personal preference, but we would recommend £15 to £20 per person per week as a guideline.

Local crew

Although voluntary, tipping is a recognised part of life in this region of the world. Some local staff will look to members of the group for personal recognition of particular services provided. Accordingly, you should allow approximately £20 of local currency for tipping.

In order to make things easier for you, the Explore Leader may organise a group's tips kitty and if this is the case, they will account for it throughout the trip.

Accommodation notes

Throughout this trip we use a mixture of simple and comfortable accommodation. As with the nature of apartments in this part of the Mediterranean the size and standard of the rooms can vary, the rooms will be decorated in a plain style with private bathrooms and some may have a balcony or terrace. We try to use smaller, family-run hotels and pensions that might not offer the same luxuries as larger chain-style hotels, but they do provide a warm welcome, a comfortable place to stay and the chance to gain a better understanding of local life. In Agia Roumeli we stay in a family ran property on the beach. The en-suite rooms are plainly decorated with minimal furnishings.
