DAY 2 - Lagoon Walk. Drive to the Drakensbergs and explore local area on foot

Our first gentle walk begins near our hotel. Known as the Lagoon Walk, the path starts as a wooden boardwalk then cuts through a section of coastal forest down to the beach. As this is a nature trail many of the trees are labelled (look out for the 500 year old white stinkwood tree!) If you are lucky you may also catch glimpses of bushbuck, duiker and other small animals and birds that the forest is home to.

On returning to our hotel we head by minibus towards the Drakensberg Mountains - approximately a three and a half hour drive. Our base for the next three nights is Sungubala, situated in the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Maloti- Drakensberg Park. Drakensberg is the world's oldest mountain range and derives its name from the Afrikaans word for 'Dragon Mountains'.

After settling into our chalet style lodge accommodation we set out to start exploring the area, following the road to cross the stream we take the ascending path to Bush Buck Ridge to reach a natural pool. We follow this river back to the lodge.

Today's morning five kilometre walk is expected to take around two hours, along a flat coastal path. The afternoon's five kilometre walk is expected to take around two hours with 220 metres of ascent and descent.

DAY 3 - Hike to Echo Cave and Bishops Inkaba

Today we also have the opportunity to take two walks. This morning's walk takes us from the lodge following an ascending trail with a short steep zig zag section to the hilltop. Continuing through a grove of bottlebrush trees and indigenous forest to reach Echo Cave. We make our way back to the camp passing through a fern forest.

In the afternoon we have a shorter walk from the lodge to Bishops Inkaba River. After a swim in the pool below the falls we walk back through the indigenous forest and descend on a fairly steep path to Jackal

Hill.

Today's morning 12 kilometre walk is expected to take around three hours, with 220 metres of ascent and descent. This is a fairly steep trail but offers great views over the mountains. The afternoon's 10 kilometre walk is expected to take around two to three hours with 140 metres of ascent and descent. There is a short steep zig zag section up to Rustlers Gap.

Today 16th December is commemorated as the 'Day of Reconciliation'.

Later we drive approximately another two and a half hours to Hluhluwe-iMfolozi Reserve. This Big Five game reserve - historically the hunting ground of past Zulu kings, are Africa's oldest national parks. As we drive to our lodge within the park we hope to be lucky and spot some game en route. This afternoon you can travel further into the park, through the dry grassland and woodland, on an optional game drive in an open vehicle. This reserve is at the forefront of conservation and is credited with saving the black and white rhino, whose future is still uncertain, from certain extinction.

Mild throughout the year and can thus be visited year round. The Western Cape has a Mediterranean-type climate, with warm, dry summers and cold winters with rainfall. Tops made from wicking materials which keep you drier and warmer are recommended as a base layer, and walking trousers are preferable to trousers of heavier material such as jeans. A waterproof jacket is essential at all times in case of rain and wind. Avoid brightly coloured clothing for game viewing.

Also trainers or closed sandals for relaxing and general wear (open toe sandals can only be worn in some places). We suggest that on international flights you either carry your walking boots in your hand luggage or wear them - should your luggage be lost or delayed, your own boots are the one thing that will be irreplaceable.

Tipping

Explore leader

Tipping isn't compulsory, and we work hard to ensure that our leaders all receive a fair wage. However, you might want to recognise a leader that's done a great job or really added to your trip by giving them a tip. We're often asked about the recommended amount. It's a tricky one, and down to personal preference, but we'd recommend between £15 to £20 per person per week as a guideline.

Local crew

Although entirely voluntary, tipping is a recognized part of life in this region of the world. Some local staff will look to members of the group for personal recognition of particular services provided. In order to make things easier for you, your leader may organise a group's tips kitty for included activities and meals and if this is the case, they will account for it throughout the tour.

Accordingly, you should allow £25.00 per person for group tipping.

South Africa

Food and drink

The costs for meals may vary depending upon location, type of restaurant and number of courses eaten and so the prices given are an average guide. Local restaurants located off the beaten track may be less expensive, whereas an upmarket restaurant located in the centre of a major city may charge more.

Accommodation notes

South Africa has a good tourism infrastructure and generally good service standards. Our accommodation throughout this tour is varied to reflect the many aspects of this beautiful country. We use a combination of hotels, guesthouses and characterful park lodges. Some of the properties are owner-occupied and give a real taste of traditional South African hospitality.

In St Lucia we stay at a local style lodge within the wetlands area. In the Hluhluwe-Imfolozi game reserve we stay at Mpila or Hilltop Camp. You be staying in two bed thatched chalet, built in a traditional style with brick structures under a thatch roof, the rooms are kept nice and cool thanks to the high ceilings so air conditioning is not necessary. Due to availability of rooms some of the group may be housed in large fixed permanent tents (en-suite) at the same site. We self cater whilst at the lodges, employing local chefs and support crew who prepares the meals with fresh produce and the group can enjoy traditional braai (Barbecue).

South Africa
